

Dear Mrs. Raffaella Merlini ,

I am fine. I hope you will also be quite fine. I thank you and your students for sending such a wonderful greeting cards. All the cards were shown to each and every students in the class. They enjoyed it and felt very happy.

Our students also drawn some greeting cards for your students regarding our Pongal festivals. It is celebrated once in year. It is a thank's giving festival to Seen-God. It is also called Harvesting festival which will be celebrated for three days. They cook new rice in a new pot. They worship seen god with flowers, sugarcane, banana, turmeric and coconut.

Some cards are send to you to known about our culture. I am very thankful for your kind co-operation. I would like to appreciate your interest in your project work.

Once again I thank you very much. I will pray for your success.

Thanking You

Yours Lovingly,
Sr. M. Saleth Mary
